

Real Estate and Urban Development Tax Notice

Real Estate and Urban Development Taxes are assessed from land, home, and depreciable property held by owners on January 1 of each year and are levied on April of the same year.

There is no monthly proration of these taxes. The property owner on January 1 of the given year, is required to pay the total annual amount of taxes due for that year even if they cease to be the owner of a property due to a midyear sale or any other reason.

Please pay by the due date using the payment form enclosed with your tax notice.

A delinquency charge may apply for late payments.
